

THE AWARD IN ACTION DURING COVID-19

Case studies help bring the Award to life. By sharing your experience as an Award participant, we can demonstrate just how unique the Award is to every young person who takes part.

By taking part in the Award, you are already doing amazing things to help build resilience in yourself and in your community. And we know there are a huge range of examples of how the Award is not only still in action during COVID-19 but that this resilience is needed now, more than ever.

Please help to inspire the international Award community through this challenging time by sharing your Award experience through COVID-19 with us.

Tell us about your Award journey – why did you decide to start your Award?
What do you like about the Award?
What do you find challenging about the Award?
What sort of challenges are you facing in your day-to-day life, as a result of COVID-19? How has this impacted you?
Is the Award helping you to deal

with any of these challenges? If so, how?
Have you had to adapt your Award activities as a result of COVID-19? If so, how? Has anything remained the same?
Have you found any interesting solutions to help you continue with your Award during COVID-19?
Are you using your Award (and particularly your Voluntary Service section) to help your community deal with the challenges of COVID-19? If so, how?
Do you think being involved with the Award helps you and your community at this time? If so, how?
Do you have any other comments or ideas you would like to share?

All case studies will need a case study release form signed by the participant and their parent/guardian if they are under 18 years old.

Please email completed case study forms and accompanying photos and/or videos to info@dukeofed.org.
