Jim Kinneir takes it "to the next level".

His $2.5 million donation is the largest single gift in the history of The Duke of Edinburgh's Award in Canada. This is an exciting financial opportunity for our programs, as it will allow us to expand our services to thousands of Canadian youth.

Jim Kinneir has a reputation for helping important Canadian institutions reach new heights. He understands the power of the B.C. Lions, the Canadian Open, and NAFTA and now his commitment has resulted in an impressive addition to the Canadian environment.

Tom McGrath, National President of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award in Canada says: "Mr. Kinneir is not one to rest on his laurels."

"If I can help ensure that all young Canadians will have access to The Award, without economic or other barriers, I will feel that I have made a positive impact."

JIM KINNEIR

In 1981, Mr. Kinneir, President and CEO of Great-West Lifeco Inc., became a founding partner of The Duke of Edinburgh's Award in Canada. Since that time, he has been a key supporter of the program, and as the largest single donor in the history of the organization, his generosity will have a profound impact on the program for generations to come.

Mr. Kinneir’s relationship with The Duke of Edinburgh’s Award began in 1981, when he first heard about the program and learned about the impact it had on young people. He was impressed by the program’s ability to provide young people with a sense of purpose and the opportunity to develop important life skills.

Mr. Kinneir has been a strong supporter of the program, and his $2.5 million donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada. The donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada. The donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada.

Mr. Kinneir’s support of The Duke of Edinburgh’s Award is in recognition of his own experience with the program. He attended the program as a young man and found it to be a transformative experience. He has been a strong supporter of the program ever since.

Mr. Kinneir has been a longtime supporter of the program, and his $2.5 million donation is a significant contribution to the program. The donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada. The donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada.

PROFILES

Tom McGrath, National President

Mr. McGrath is highly skilled in business and non-profit leadership, with over 25 years of experience in leading large organizations. He was appointed as the National President of the Duke of Edinburgh’s Award in Canada in 2008 and has been a key supporter of the program.

Mr. McGrath’s leadership has resulted in significant growth and expansion of the program, and he continues to be a strong advocate for the program’s core activities.

Mr. McGrath’s experience in business and non-profit leadership has been instrumental in supporting the program’s core activities and in expanding its reach across Canada. The donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada. The donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada.

Michael R.P. Rayfield, Vice Chairman

Mr. Rayfield has a long history of leadership in the non-profit sector, and he has been a key supporter of the program. He is a former Board member of the B.C. Lions Football Club and has been a strong advocate for the program’s core activities.

Mr. Rayfield’s commitment to the program has resulted in significant growth and expansion of the program, and he continues to be a strong advocate for the program’s core activities.

Mr. Rayfield’s leadership has resulted in significant growth and expansion of the program, and he continues to be a strong advocate for the program’s core activities. The donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada. The donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada. The donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada.

Steve Mantle, President & CEO

Mr. Mantle has a long history of leadership in the financial services sector, and he has been a key supporter of the program. He is the President and CEO of The Duke of Edinburgh’s Award in Canada.

Mr. Mantle’s leadership has resulted in significant growth and expansion of the program, and he continues to be a strong advocate for the program’s core activities. The donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada. The donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada. The donation will be used to support the program’s core activities and to expand its reach across Canada.