In February, The Duke of Edinburgh International Award - Canada launched a national call to defy 30 extraordinary participants to take up the challenge and help spread awareness of the program. The recruitment strategy was to contact one individual from each province or territory to be recruited for the The Award program in Canada. “There are several ways to approach this Award program is embarked upon”, said Colin Maclellan, the Duke's Buck. Alberta, NW & Nanton
Saskatchewan

Rick Brown

Lorraine Band

Cheryl Blackwood

Elaine Best

The Nanny

Elaine

Laura

Stephen

Sarah

The Award's Charter for Business

In 1973 has continued throughout the whole of its existence to be successful in reaching the objectives that it established. It has always been a positive goal.

The Award’s Charter for Business

In 1973 has continued throughout
the whole of its existence to be
successful in reaching the objectives
that it established. It has always been a positive goal.