

Adventurous Journey (AJ) Debriefing Report

In addition to finishing your Adventurous Journey in the Online Record Book, you must also complete an Adventurous Journey Report/Debrief as a team.

This isn't meant to be formal; it's your team's way of sharing what you did on the trip, how you prepared for it and what you learned. We want to know more about the adventure and what impacted your team!

Decide with your team and Assessor the format for your debrief (i.e., debrief template, team meeting, slideshow, video, blog, photobook, audio recording etc.) and whether it needs to be uploaded on the ORB. Your team may also choose to upload your planning guide, daily team logbook, pictures, etc. Simply share your awesome experiences – we're eager to hear all about it!

Practice Journey Debrief
An opportunity to change or modify your Qualifying Journey plans and details with your Supervisor. The debrief should be completed as soon as possible after your Practice Journey.
Team meeting with your Supervisor to review your Practice Journey.
Date of Debrief: 2024-05-10
Please note, the Supervisor is responsible for completing the assessment for the team's Practice Journey on the ORB.
	Notes:
What went well? What do you want to continue to see on the Qualifying Journey?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The team successfully explored various art installations in Montreal, effectively utilizing public transportation for efficient travel. The team demonstrated good teamwork and communication skills, contributing to a positive group dynamic. Time Management improved as the journey progressed.

What was challenging? (for individuals and the team)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Navigating the city and coordinating public transportation presented some challenges, emphasizing the need for improved navigation skills. • Balancing time between exploration and meals required better coordination.
Is there any other training or skills your team needs to safely complete the Qualifying Journey?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consider additional navigation training to enhance the team's ability to navigate urban environments. • Refine time management strategies for efficient completion of tasks during the Qualifying Journey. • Learn survey techniques for increased efficiency: Surveys in urban environment may present challenge, because of fast-paced lifestyle.
Any other comments or notes?	N/A

Qualifying Journey Debrief
An opportunity to review the Qualifying Journey with your team and Assessor to learn more from the experience. Talk to your Assessor and team about how you will complete your Adventurous Journey Debriefing Report and submit it. Your Adventurous Journey Debriefing Report will need to be submitted to your Assessor before they can complete the Assessor Report on the ORB. The debrief should be completed as soon as possible after your Qualifying Journey.
Team meeting with your Assessor to review your Qualifying Journey. Date of Debrief: 2024-05-12 Please note, the Assessor is responsible for completing the Assessor Report for the team's Qualifying Journey on the ORB.

	Notes:
What did you do?	The team embarked on a Qualifying Journey to explore community art projects in Montreal, conducting surveys and creating a team mural at the community center.
What went well? What are you proud of?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The team successfully visited more than six community art installations, gathering valuable insights from bystander surveys. • The creation of a team mural at the community center was a collaborative success, showcasing artistic expression and team cohesion. • The team effectively utilized public transportation and followed the meal plan, enhancing self-sufficiency.
What was challenging? (for individuals and the team)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coordinating surveys with bystanders required effective communication and time management. • Adapting to different community art installations presented unique challenges, requiring flexibility.
Did you accomplish your team goal?	Yes, the team accomplished the goal of exploring community art projects, conducting surveys, and initiating the creation of a team mural.

What would you do differently for future journeys?	Consider refining the surveying process to enhance efficiency and gather more targeted responses.
What stood out? What did you learn? What are your take-aways from this experience?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The impact of community art on bystanders and the local community was evident through survey responses.• Enhanced teamwork, adaptability, and a deeper appreciation for community art were significant takeaways.
Any other comments or notes? N/A	