

Nova Scotia

Proclamation

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award Awareness Week

- WHEREAS The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award Canada is a global framework for non-formal education and learning that challenges young people to dream big, celebrate their achievements and make a difference in their world; and,
- WHEREAS Participation in the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award Canada supports local communities through inter-generational relationship building and voluntary service; and,
- WHEREAS More than 6,000 young people from Nova Scotia aged 14-24 have achieved an Award in the last 40 years, developing life skills that lead to personal growth and achievement; and,
- WHEREAS The Province of Nova Scotia recognizes and acknowledges the impact the award has on youth in developing skills, getting physically active, giving service, and experiencing adventure.

THEREFORE I, Tim Houston, Premier of Nova Scotia, do hereby proclaim October 20 – 26, 2025, to be “The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award Awareness Week” in the Province of Nova Scotia.

Honourable Tim Houston
Premier of Nova Scotia

Signed at Halifax, Nova Scotia